

Planet Ego

You wake up, you turn around
Try to be quiet, to make no sound
As you realize there's no one around
You're on your own now ... alone now.

There's a hole in your tiny heart
You try to fix with your credit card.
You crave for being loved by everyone
But you're alone now ... alone now.

In your world there's no room for a second one.
In your world you're the only one under the sun.
In your world you are always on the run ...
... it's your planet Ego.

Planet Ego

You can turn where you want, you are on your own
You can earn what you want, you are on your own.
You can beg, you can scream, you are on your own.
On your own ... on your own ... on your own.

These Days Are Over

Everything used to be easy,
Everything used to work.
Everything used to be o.k.,
Everything turned out right.

These days are over now
And I miss them, yes I do.
These days are over now
And I kiss you, 'cause you're still here.

Time was not important,
Time was on our side.
Everything used to be perfect,
Everything turned out right.

These days are over now
And I miss them, yes I do.

These days are over now
And I kiss you, 'cause you're still here.

If I only could, then I really would
If I only could, then I really should
Turn back time
Relationships are changing,
I feel lonely ... I feel lonely.
But I thank for your support,
You're the only one who cares.

These days are over now
And I miss them, yes I do.
These days are over now
And I kiss you, 'cause you're still here.
